1 The 2013 average student loan debt for graduating seniors at public, four-year institutions is calculated at $28,400 (The Project on Student Debt, Dec 2014 - http://projectonstudentdebt.org/pub_home.php).

2. Funds from the University’s annual and endowed scholarships awarded to students at your college or campus, including those awarded by other departments of the University.

3. Students with household incomes equal to or below 150 percent of the U.S. poverty level. For a family of four, an annual income of 150 percent of the poverty level is $35,325 (Dept. of Health and Human Services, 2013).

4. Unmet need is the difference between the total cost of a student’s education for one year and the amount of the expected family contribution combined with all sources of student aid funding received (including student and parent loans).
