The Shirley Hendrick Award recognizes a senior administrator who has significantly advanced efforts for adult learners at Penn State. Under Dr. Williams' direction, Penn State Lehigh Valley is now known for providing a wide variety of educational programs - both credit and non-credit - to adult learners across their life span. She appointed a committee on Campus Climate and Organizational Culture to gauge campus morale, identify issues for improvement, and ensure a positive climate for adult learners and veterans.